Harpers' Choice: our selection of the best in drinks this week

Green goes green

What is it? A new range of organic wines from the Languedoc.

Why we like it: Organic wine has ground to make up on the organic food market. So multiple listings can only be a good thing.

The basics: Reserve Naturelle's Merlot and Viognier retail at £4.99 with the Syrah at £5.99.

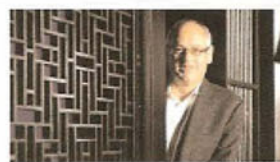

How to get it: From Tesco or Bottle Green.
